How common is the belief that God blesses good people?

How common is the belief that God should bless good people?

Why are these beliefs dangerous?

Before reading what the friends say, remember what God says about the friends:

[The LORD] said to Eliphaz the Temanite, "I am angry with you and your two friends, because you have not spoken the truth about me, as my servant Job has."

Job 42:7 NIV

In Job 4:4-6, what's the point Eliphaz is making?

In Job 8:4-7, what's the point Bildad is making?

In Job 11:13-20, what's the point Zophar is making?

In Job 19:5-7, what's the point Job is making?

In Job 21:7-9, what's the point Job is making?

God says the friends are wrong and Job is right! What does that mean to you?

The Better Truth

Throughout Job's laments and complaints, he frequently drops little statements of faith and hope that can only be understood from the side of history that knows about Jesus. For each passage, share what you see and what you think it means.

Job 16:12-13

Job 9:2, 33

Job 16:19-21

Job 14:13-15

Job 19:23-27

Job is convinced that there is real injustice in this world even though God is fully in charge, but Job is also convinced that God is a God who redeems, and that's where his faith rests.
